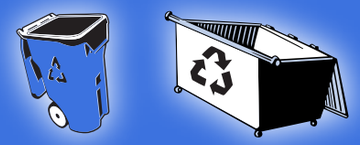
What Goes In the Recycle Containers?



Paper: newspaper, magazines, catalogs, phone books, office paper, envelopes, junk mail, ads, cardboard (flattened), paper bags, paper back books, etc . . .

paper may not be plastic laminated, food soiled, or waxed.

Metal: aluminum, tin, or steel cans, metal must be emptied and rinsed, all aerosol cans must be completely emptied of their contents before recycling (aerosol cans containing hazardous materials must go to a s.a.f.e. collection center, see reverse for more information)

Glass: bottles and jars, glass must be emptied and rinsed, NO drinking glasses, ceramics, dishes, mirrors, window glass, or light bulbs

Plastic: soda bottles, water bottles, detergent bottles, milk and water jugs, juice bottles, yogurt containers, cottage cheese containers, butter / margarine containers, rigid (not formed) plastic, plastics with the following symbols.

1 PETE 2 HDPE 5 PP

all plastic must be emptied and rinsed.
NO #1 hinged clear produce boxes (clamshells)

What Does Not Go In the Recycle Containers?

- NO foamed polystyrene (Styrofoam™)
- NO plastics with the following symbols:

  3 V 4 LDPE 6 PS 7 OTHER

- NO tubes, hinged clear produce boxes (clamshells), or unclean plastics
- NO plastic Bags
  return bags to a designated collection site. Go to www.plasticfilmrecycling.org/recycling-bags-and-wraps/find-drop-off-location/
- NO dirty paper or cardboard
  food soiled or wet
- NO food waste
- NO yard trimmings
  grass clippings, leaves, or plants
- NO wood products
  no lumber, tree trimmings, furniture, etc ...
- NO tires or rubber materials
  check with local tire shops about used tire recycling
- NO hazardous materials
  No paints, solvents, cleaning products, pool and garden chemicals, medicine, sharps needles, thermostats etc ... (take household hazardous waste to a s.a.f.e. collection center, see reverse for more information)

Drop Off at the Burbank Recycle Center

We accept all curbside recyclable materials as well as:

Scrap Metal : clean aluminum foil, food foil trays, hinges, metal sheets aluminum doors, metal chairs, etc... no wood or plastic attached to metal please

Plastics : large plastic items (buckets, plastic storage containers, trash cans, etc.)
no plastic bags, toys, metal, wood, pvc, vinyl expanded polystyrene (Styrofoam™)

Eyeglasses : used eyeglasses, frames accepted monday - friday in the hope sustainability center lobby, no eyeglass cases

Mattresses : burbank residents are allowed to drop off 1 mattress per year must be dry and free of mold and insects

Please consider reuse, repurposing or donation whenever possible

Not accepted at the burbank recycle center

No wood, green waste, furniture refrigerators, air conditioners, paint, solvents, videos, cd's dvd's, trash, or any hazardous waste.

To dispose of household hazardous waste please see the reverse for information on S.A.F.E. collection centers

The following items are accepted in limited quantities from burbank residents monday - friday 8:00 am - 5:00 pm, electronic collection closed saturday and sunday

Used Oil & Antifreeze : waste motor oil, antifreeze, and used oil filters

Keep oil, filters, and antifreeze separated. waste oil drop off is limited to 15 gallons per trip to the recycle center (it is unlawful to transport more than 15 gallons of hazardous waste at a time). oil cannot be mixed with dirt, water, solvents, gasoline, diesel, etc. the burbank recycle center pays 10 cents per quart for used motor oil. if payment is desired, notify an attendant before emptying container.

burbank ID required for disposal of the following

Toner cartridges : used printer & toner cartridges

Household batteries : alkaline, rechargeable, etc...
limited to 10 lbs per resident per year

Fluorescent lights : fluorescent tubes and compact fluorescent lights limited to 10 bulbs per resident per year

Electronic waste : computer equipment, vcr's, dvd players, phones, televisions, microwaves, etc...
limited to 100 lbs per resident per year