

NUTRITION RESOURCES for BURBANK

BURBANK & LA COUNTY ASSISTANCE

Local food resources to help prevent hunger during COVID-19

Burbank Nutrition Services

Burbank Nutrition Services (BNS) offers qualified residents age 60 or over with weekly drive-thru meal pick up. For those unable to pick up, meal distribution is coordinated through the Home Delivered Meals (HDM) program. The suggested donation is $3.00. Call 818.238.5366 to apply.

Burbank Temporary Aid Center

BTAC provides clients a variety of programs and services including: groceries from BTAC's Food Pantry; daily sack lunches for the homeless; shower and laundry for the homeless; transportation assistance; assistance with utility bills; and other services.

For more information, contact 818.848.2822 or info@theBTAC.org.

Grab & Go Meals for Kids

All Burbank residents are eligible for free "Grab and Go" meals for kids, provided by the Burbank Unified School District. Friday meal pick-ups are available at the school location students are enrolled. Kids not old enough to enroll in school can pick up at any school location. At this time, meals are free and do not require program enrollment.

For more information, contact BUSD Food Services at 818.729.4539 or www.busdfoodservices.com.

CalFresh
