Vote NO on Measure ____

Measure ____ is poorly written; paid for by outside special interests, and could take millions from Burbank’s budget to build a bureaucracy without oversight or accountability. It reflects a lack of understanding of our Burbank community, our affordable housing needs, the needs of our tenants and the vulnerability of our Mom-and-Pop landlords. Burbank deserves better.

Effective January 1, 2020, The California Tenant Protection Act - AB 1482, limits rent increases and sets rules for Just Cause Evictions for every Californian. Despite having statewide comprehensive renter protection, you are being asked to vote for this ill-conceived Measure that establishes a new Burbank Landlord-Tenant Commission outside the City Charter, with unchecked authority to:

- Set its own budget and salaries
- Establish additional landlord fees
- Hire outside attorneys
- Initiate lawsuits
- Issue subpoenas

Programs in comparable cities indicate this Measure may cost Burbank as much as $6,000,000 with 24 staff. This bureaucracy will have access to your tax dollars without answering to anyone, taking money from existing Burbank services and programs for our residents, families, and seniors.

This Measure would discourage development of desperately needed affordable housing and place additional burdens on our long-term Mom-and-Pop owners and residents. Proponents could have proposed Charter amendments but didn’t. Their refusal to work within the Charter (our community constitution) should raise serious questions for everyone.

Far from being local, this Measure was financed by organizations from Sacramento, Bay Area, and Los Angeles. Decisions affecting Burbank should be made in Burbank, not by outsiders. Burbank is already protected by statewide rent control. An unaccountable Commission using our tax dollars to promote its own agenda is bad government.

This Measure is potentially devastating for Burbank. Protect the integrity of Burbank housing, its Charter, and community. Read the full consequences in the City’s 9212 Report at www.burbankca.gov.
