INTRODUCTION

The City Council has established a number of Boards, Commissions, and Committees to review City of Burbank (City) programs, projects, and community issues. These groups provide greater community participation and input into local government and facilitate quality decisions by the City Council. This handbook, designed as an informational tool to assist interested citizens, presents a statement of purpose, policies, and guidelines outlining the role, operation, and responsibilities of City Boards, Commissions, and Committees.

Most of these Boards, Commissions, and Committees have been created by City Council adoption of an Ordinance (law) and are considered permanent. The City also has other committees which meet on an as-needed basis or annually for a specific purpose, and are referenced to as ad hoc committees. A list of the City's ad hoc committees is included on Page 13.

Applications are available and submitted online at www.burbankca.gov/bccapplication or contact the City Clerk's Office at (818) 238-5851 or at cityclerks@burbankca.gov.

STRUCTURE

Boards, Commissions, and Committees provide input to the City Council thereby opening additional lines of communication between the general public and the City Council. Such groups help assure that City government is responsive to the Burbank community. Each Board, Commission, and Committee has the opportunity to present suggestions and make recommendations to the City Council; however, they do not determine or establish City policy or administrative direction.

Boards, Commissions, and Committees benefits include:

- √ Focusing attention on specific areas of interest
- √ Encouraging citizen participation
- √ Providing a viewpoint from the community
- √ Making recommendations based on thorough and in-depth analysis of alternatives from a citizen's perspective

Application Requirements

The State legislature adopted the Maddy Local Appointive List Act (Act) of 1975 which added Government Code Section 54970 et seq. to deal with vacancies and appointments of citizens to City Boards, Commissions, and Committees. The Act requires that an appointment list be prepared each year noting the members serving, appointment and expiration dates, and qualifications, if any, for the positions. The City is in compliance with the Act. (This list is available in the City Clerk's Office and also found on the City website at www.burbankca.gov/bccapplication)

Whenever a Board, Commission, or Committee vacancy occurs, a notice is posted in the City Clerk's Office, the City website, the Burbank Channel during City Council Meetings, social media, and through press releases that are distributed to the local newspapers and community groups.

The City Council asks that all applicants thoroughly complete the application. The application allows each applicant to apply for two positions, in priority order, should they desire. All appointments are made by the City Council at regular meetings and all applicants are notified by email when the appointment has been made. In the event an applicant is not selected, the application will remain on file for one year for consideration in filling future vacancies, should any occur.

For the majority of the Boards, Commissions, and Committees, no person is eligible to serve unless they are an elector of, and actually reside in Burbank (Burbank Municipal Code 2-1-407).

When an applicant has been appointed to a Board, Commission, or Committee by the City Council, the applicant must come to the City Clerk's Office to take the Oath of Office before attending their first meeting. Several Boards, Commissions, and Committees are also required to file a Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700) and complete AB1234 Ethics Training. (See Pages 12 to 16).

THE CITIZEN'S ROLE AND AUTHORITY

City Boards, Commissions, and Committees have a primary role of advising the City Council in the determination of City policies and procedures. Boards, Commissions, and Committees facilitate public participation.

City Boards, Commissions, and Committees are not involved in the direct administration or operation of City departments. Boards, Commissions, and Committee members may not direct administrative staff to initiate programs, conduct major studies, or establish official policy without the approval of the City Council. City staff members are available to provide general staff assistance to Boards, Commissions, and Committees.

Despite Boards, Commissions, and Committees differing tasks, all share some basic responsibilities. Members need to remain informed on subjects of interest to the specific Board, Commission, or Committee on which they serve. Conscientious attendance is also a fundamental responsibility, as irregular attendance lessens one's ability to study all aspects of items under consideration.

CHAIR AND VICE-CHAIR

The members of each board, commission and committee shall annually elect a chair and vice chair at their first meeting in August following the appointment of successors to fill expired terms of office. A secretary shall also be elected except as otherwise provided in Division 2 of this article. If a board, commission or committee is not scheduled to meet in August, a special meeting shall be called to elect a chair, vice chair, and, if necessary, a secretary. Officers so elected shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing board, commission or committee (Burbank Municipal Code 2-1-408).

ATTENDANCE POLICY

On September 9, 1997, the City Council adopted Ordinance No. 3472, which implemented the following attendance policy for Board, Commission, and Committee members.

In the event a member of a Board, Commission or Committee is absent for three (3) consecutive regularly scheduled meetings of the board, commission or committee to which he/she has been appointed, or who fails to attend at least seventy five percent (75%) of the regularly scheduled meetings during a twelve (12) month period, which commences on the date of the appointment of the individual member to office, the attendance record of such member shall be reviewed by the Board, Commission, or Committee to which the member was appointed. The Board, Commission, or Committee shall consider the reasons for the absences with the member and make a determination whether the absences should be excused or unexcused by the City Council. The report and recommendation shall be transmitted to the City Clerk who shall agendaize the matter for City Council consideration. The City Council shall take appropriate action including, but not limited to, excusing the absences, removing the member, or such other action as the Council deems appropriate.

City staff assigned to assist any Board, Commission, or Committee shall notify the chair of any member who fails to attend two (2) consecutive regular scheduled meetings or who has failed to attend fifty percent (50%) of the regularly scheduled meetings in the last quarter. If the chair is the member in question, the notification shall be made to the Vice-Chair. The Chair or Vice-Chair shall counsel the member in writing regarding his/her attendance, a copy of which shall be provided to the City Clerk (Burbank Municipal Code Section 2-1-403).

RESIGNATIONS

Resignations must be received in writing to the City Clerk's Office by mail or email at cityclerks@burbankca.gov.

CITY COUNCIL EXPECTATIONS OF BOARD, COMMISSION, AND COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Overall, remember that all of us are working for the good of this community – that is why we are involved.

1. Demonstrate genuine respect and friendliness, and do not "personalize" votes, issues or disagreements; always disagree respectfully.
2. Guard against unnecessary disruptive comments; always move toward positive interactions with each other.
3. Always be professional and work to elevate issues above the "personal level."
4. Be respectful to everyone and in how we treat each other; always practice civility. Treat others with consideration by being attentive, patient, and courteous.
5. Discipline yourselves to comment during the discussion/deliberation period before the vote, staying focused on the issue at hand, and go "through the Chair" to facilitate orderly discussion and comment. Give all members an opportunity to state their opinion and position, while also encouraging healthy deliberation and an openness to consider all ideas.
6. "Be hard on the issue -- easy on the person."
7. Once votes are taken, move on and do not let the vote outcome be disruptive or destructive; if necessary, articulate the reasoning behind your vote, so that your colleagues can better understand your thinking on issues.
8. The Board, Commission, or Committee is a "team" in the sense that you are individuals working in a collaborative system toward a common goal. That does not mean you are expected to subordinate your individual judgment to the collective will. We respect that distinction and we do not expect unanimous votes to prove unity.

9. Always make a good faith effort to share all information and documents you receive concerning an agenda item with the rest of your fellow members, as soon as possible. During the meeting, briefly share questions of staff and subsequent answers by staff.

10. Members shall disclose any conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest.

11. Speak only for yourself; not for other members, especially in the media. A member is not required to speak to the media; however, the media should not be used against another member.

12. Members will conduct themselves within the confines of the law including the Brown Act to ensure transparency and accountability to members of the public.

13. A member should only act or speak for the Board, Commission, or Committee when authorized to do so by the same. Otherwise a member should only speak or act in their individual capacity and should clarify when necessary that the statements are their own and not those of the Board, Commission, or Committee.

14. A member acts with integrity in all situations and relationships. Members tell the truth leaving no false impressions. Members act in an unbiased and neutral manner; free of personal interests.

City Council Approved: 6/26/2018

CONFLICT OF INTEREST FORM 700

The Political Reform Act, enacted by referendum in 1974, requires financial disclosure of interests by certain individuals in decision-making positions within State and local government agencies or entities. One legal requirement is that each local entity, such as cities, counties, districts, enact a Conflict of Interest Code, a set of rules for such disclosure. The first Conflict of Interest Code was approved by the Burbank City Council on March 29, 1977. The purpose was threefold:

- To require public disclosure of financial interests which may affect the actions of people in decision-making positions or positions where those people can influence decisions;
- To require people in decision-making positions to avoid participating in actions where a financial interest may be affected; and,
- To make such rules public.

Statements of Economic Interests must be filed with the City Clerk's Office within 30 days of assuming office and by April 1st of each year thereafter while serving covering the period of January through December of the prior calendar year. Boards, Commissions, and Committee required to file Statements of Economic Interests include the Arts in Public Places Committee, Board of Building and Fire Code Appeals, Board of Library Trustees, Burbank Water and Power Board, Heritage Commission, Infrastructure Oversight Board, Landlord-Tenant Commission, Park, Recreation, and Community Services Board, Planning Board, Senior Citizen Board, and Transportation Commission. Should you have questions or need advice regarding your filing, please contact the Fair Political Practices Commission directly at advice@fppc.ca.gov or (866) 275-3772.

When a matter in which members have a direct or indirect financial interest comes before a designated Board, Commission, or Committee members must recuse themselves from participating in deliberation and state the reason for their recusal. The member should leave the meeting room and return only upon conclusion of the matter. If there is any doubt as to whether to recuse or abstain in advance of the meeting the member should contact the City Attorney's Office for guidance at (818) 238-5700.
