

Darin Shea is an entrepreneur and former registered financial adviser for Morgan Stanley. Over his 30+ year career, Darin managed large pools of assets at a Wall Street firm and most recently ran his own multi-million dollar business for 20+ years. As a 10-year resident of Burbank, Darin serves the community he loves in numerous capacities. Whether it's co-leading the Lord's Kitchen and feeding the local homeless population at Emmanuel Church or serving countless hours with the Burbank High Vocal Music Association, he constantly invests in the community. He's developed a keen sense of pride and passion for the city he, his wife and four children call home. His degree in Business/Finance, Wall Street experience and practical skills in business make him the ideal candidate for Burbank City Treasurer. The safekeeping of the city's finances is of utmost importance. With his enthusiasm, and your vote, Darin can be your champion in helping to improve the financial health of the City of Burbank.
