

March 4, 2022

Dear Middle School and High School Administrators:

Thank you for helping us collect applications for the 2022 Austin Cook Award for Outstanding Youth. The 2022 Nomination Form is attached.

Please post at your school's office of choice and encourage your school's teachers, counselors, parents, administrative staff, etc. to nominate a student who meets the qualifications of this great award.

Applications may be submitted by April 15, 2022 via email to bburton@burbankca.gov. The award recipient will be honored at a Burbank City Council meeting in May.

For more information, please feel free to contact me or your school's Youth Board Representative.

Kind Regards,

Bryce Burton
Recreation Coordinator
bburton@burbankca.gov
(818) 238-5398

PLEASE POST IN YOUR SCHOOL'S BULLETIN

The Burbank Youth Board is accepting nominations for the 2022 Austin Cook Award for Outstanding Youth. This award is designed to recognize middle and high school students for an achievement(s) or for actions that have positively contributed to the community. Examples include, but are not limited to, youth that have provided outstanding volunteer service, an achievement while overcoming adversity, and youth donating their talents to the community. Award recipient will be honored at a Burbank City Council meeting in May.

Last day to submit a nomination is Friday, April 15, 2022.

If you are interested in nominating a student, you may obtain an application from the school office.