Transportation Commission Information

The Transportation Commission works to develop an adaptable and efficient mobility system that enhances Burbank's quality of life, strengthens its economy, and ensures equal access. The Transportation Commission guides the community and Council on advancing the City's transportation system, implementing adopted plans such as the Burbank2035 General Plan Mobility Element and Complete our Streets Plan, and monitoring the use of transportation funding. Their recommendations prioritize a balanced network that meets the needs of all users, including transit riders, pedestrians, bicyclists, motorists, and individuals with mobility, visual, or hearing challenges. The Commission may also make recommendations on traffic programs and parking.
