Greater Los Angeles County Vector Control District Information

The Greater Los Angeles Vector Control District, initially known as the Southeast Mosquito Abatement District, was established in 1952. The District's governing power is vested in its 37 members of the Board of Trustees. One trustee is appointed by each of the 36 cities and the County Board of Supervisors appoints one to represent unincorporated areas of Los Angeles County. Board Member duties and responsibilities include setting policy establishing the budget, approving expenditures, and retaining legal counsel. To be appointed, the member must reside in and be a resident voter of the City of Burbank.

Metropolitan Water District Information

The Metropolitan Water District of Southern California (MWD) is a consortium of 26 member agencies that provides drinking water to approximately 19 million people in Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, Riverside, San Bernardino and Ventura counties. Its mission is to provide its service area with adequate and reliable supplies of high-quality water to meet present and future needs in an environmentally and economically responsible way.
