Community Meeting
Citywide Outdoor Dining on Private Property Draft Regulations and Program

What is this?

The City of Burbank Planning Division will be holding an in-person community meeting to review the draft regulations and process to allow citywide Outdoor Dining on Private Property (Project). The purpose of the proposed Project is to establish a formal streamlined review process and development standards to allow for permanent outdoor dining on private non-residential property. Following the community meeting, the Project will be presented to the Planning Commission for consideration. After Planning Commission consideration, the Project would then be presented to the City Council for adoption at a later date.
