

MILITARY SERVICE RECOGNITION PROGRAM

The Military Service Recognition Program was established by the City of Burbank to honor and recognize current military personnel from Burbank who are on active-duty.

Eligibility

To qualify, honorees must meet the following requirements:

- Active-duty military personnel from the United States Armed Forces; AND
- Current Burbank resident; OR
- Immediate family member of current Burbank resident (husband/wife/partner, son/daughter, grandson/granddaughter)
- Military honoree must have lived in Burbank

Banner Price: $240

Price includes: (1) double sided 21" x 76" vertical banner, production, installation, removal, and two-year display.

Register at www.BurbankParks.com (under Veteran Programs tab). For mail-in or drop off, complete application on the back.

Banner will be removed and presented to each honoree/family during the City's Veterans Day Ceremony upon conclusion of the display term.

Two application periods will be available each year along with two installation periods:

Application Period for November 2025 Installation:

August 18, 2025 - October 10, 2025

Application Period for May 2026 installation:

March 2, 2026 - May 1, 2026

Banners will be located throughout Third Street between Olive Avenue and Burbank Boulevard. The installation location is at the discretion of the City.

For more information and application, visit www.BurbankCA.gov/MSRP

The City of Burbank is not responsible for replacing banners that are stolen or damaged due to the sun, weather, age, vandalism or any act of nature such as high winds. Application and installation dates are subject to change.
