

TECHNICAL FOUL GUIDELINES FOR ADULT BASKETBALL

- Teams will receive a team technical foul for the following violations:
 - 6 players on the court
 - Duplicate jersey number
 - Illegal jersey (non-matching color)
 - Calling time-out when none are available
- When a coach receives 1 technical foul during a game, they are to remain seated on the team bench for the remainder of the game.
- If a player receives 1 technical foul during the game, they will be removed from the game for two minutes. The time begins once the player leaves the court and the foul shots are taken.
- If a spectator receives 1 technical foul during a game, their team will be assessed a team technical foul. The coach/manager/captain will then approach the spectator to address the issue.
- If player/coach/spectator receives two technical fouls in 1 game they will be ejected. The player/coach/spectator will need to leave the facility immediately. The player/coach/spectator will receive an automatic minimum 1 game suspension. The office can assess up to a 3 games suspension based on the violation resulting in the ejection.
- If a single player/coach/spectator receives 3 technical fouls during the same season, they will receive a 1 game suspension and will be placed on probation for the remainder of the season.
 - If they receive a technical foul after their game suspension they will receive another game suspension. Once a player/coach receives 5 technical fouls they will be suspended for the remainder of the season.
- If a team receives 5 technical fouls in a season they will be in jeopardy of forfeiting their right to play in the play-offs.
- If a player/coach is involved in a physical altercation of any kind, they will be suspended until their hearing with the Burbank Athletic Federation; at which time their reinstatement date will be determined.
- Game Ejection Guidelines for non-physical ejections
 - 1 game ejection = 1 game suspension minimum
 - 2 game ejection = 2 game suspension and will be placed on probation for the remainder of the season
 - 3 game ejection = not allowed to play the remainder of the season
