

The California Retailers Association wants to help Californians who have been displaced due to COVID-19 with resources should they like to seek short-term employment

Below are retailers who are currently hiring throughout California:

CVS announced that it plans to immediately fill 50,000 full-time, part-time and temporary roles in locations around the United States. The company says it will use virtual job fairs and interviews to hire store associates, home delivery drivers, distribution center employees and customer service representatives. See here for more information.

Walmart said it plans to hire 150,000 U.S. hourly workers for its stores and distribution centers through the end of May. Visit their company career site here.

Raley's listed hiring e-cart positions at their NorCal locations below. There is a significant need in the Bay Area. Please visit www.raleys.com/careers for more information.

Sacramento, Chico, Elk Grove, Modesto, Roseville, Grass Valley, Auburn, Turlock, Alameda, Fairfield, El Dorado Hills, Folsom, Lincoln, Placerville, Manteca, Salinas, Vacaville, Oakdale, Woodland, Tracy, Gilroy, Lodi, Stockton, Redding, Oroville, Santa Rosa, Mountain View, Benicia, Rohnert Park, San Jose, Napa

Amazon alone is hiring thousands across California, please go here to find more information.

Albertsons/Safeway is hiring more than 2,000 workers to help restock empty shelves. There will be a focus on the more than 165 Bay Area locations. See here for more information.

Dollar General said it plans to double its normal hiring rate and add up to 50,000 new employees nationwide by the end of April.

Ralph's, Vons and Costco all were mentioned specifically for hiring in SoCal.

A Costco in Woodland Hills is looking to hire 40 people at that location, per local reports. Please reach out to stores individually or visit their websites for more information.

3/23/2020